

2011 Term Positions at Various Northern Sites

Nasittuq Corporation – North Warning System Project (NWS)

Invites you to submit your resume for upcoming TERM OPPORTUNITIES at various Northern Sites

The annual preventive and corrective maintenance along with new work initiatives at some of the North Warning System Sites is expected to take place from about March to December 2011. These projects require short-term work teams, and following provides a brief description of skills required for each position. For more information about Nasittuq, visit our website @ www.nasittuq.com.

SITE SUPERVISORS: Responsible for the overall activities that are scheduled to take place at the site. Requires: 3 to 5 years' experience supervising teams of at least five people in an operations and maintenance capacity at a remote site; and, previous work experience at one of the NWS sites.

SITE ESCORTS: Responsible for ensuring safe/secure access to the designated NWS Sites as follows: liaison to the Zone Managers and the North Bay Support Centre and providing on-site guidance to visitors as to the NWS Operating protocol within their designated area of responsibility; and, responsible for documenting, reporting and maintaining facilities files. Requires: experience working within a mechanical or electrical/electronic systems environment to activate/de-active site systems; and, supervisory/ management background and/or previous work experience in the military or RCMP considered assets.

CHEFS: Prepare and serve meals, bake, ensure kitchen sanitation, receipt/storage/inventory and documentation of food management, food inspection, and meal planning based on master schedule. Requires: certification as a journeyman cook, previous experience and valid driver's license.

FACILITIES MAINTENANCE TECHNICIANS: Responsible for the operation and maintenance of the power plants, as well as general maintenance of facilities and equipment. Requires: completion of recognized technical training program, and possession of journeyman qualification (i.e. Electrician) in one or more trade areas.

FACILITIES MAINTENANCE TECHNICIANS - VEHICLE: Maintain/Repair site vehicles, heavy equipment and power support equipment, both mobile and static. Requires: journeyman qualification or equivalent, plus experience.

HEAVY EQUIPMENT OPERATORS (HEO): Heavy equipment operation, roads, runways and grounds maintenance, and/or land fill operations. Requires: Licensed heavy equipment operator with Air Brake endorsement and experience operating equipment such as dozers, loaders, graders and/or dump trucks.

FIELD INSPECTORS: Inspect sub-contractor work, ensure work is carried out in accordance with plans & specifications, coordinate site activities between subcontractors and head office, and write progress reports. Requires: Civil/Mechanical/Electrical or Electronic Engineering technician diploma, depending on the project requirements, plus a minimum of 5 years' hands on experience in field work utilizing pertinent Canadian construction codes.

WEATHER OBSERVERS: Observe and report special climatological and /or synoptic weather observation to aircraft. Requires: completion of weather observation training & certification, and previous weather observation experience.

BEAR MONITORS: Escorting and ensuring safety of staff. Requires: proof of a Possession of Acquisition License (PAL) and/or Fire Arms Certificate (FAC).

2011 TERM POSITIONS AT VARIOUS NORTHERN SITES (Continued)

CARPENTERS: Building heavy crates for the handling, transportation and storage of hazardous materials. Requires: completion of a recognized carpentry training program or equivalent, minimum of 3 years' related carpentry experience, and knowledge/experience in the handling of hazardous materials. Certification in WHMIS and/or Transportation of Dangerous Goods would be considered an asset.

WAREHOUSEPERSONS: Performs inventory control, handles packages and labels materials for storage or shipment, operates material handling equipment and performs manual labour duties, maintains good housekeeping practices, assists in the transportation of personnel and trips to the long or short range radar sites. Requires: previous experience in inventory control and shipping/receiving, valid drivers' license, and ability to operate a fork lift.

RIGGERS: Carry out tower plumb inspection, guy tensioning checks & adjustments, and antenna base level checks & adjustments. Requires: Certified Rigger with minimum of 5 years' related experience.

PLUMBERS: Repair water distribution systems, sewage handling systems and glycol heating systems. Requires: Valid provincial/inter-provincial plumbers' license, and a minimum of 5 years' experience as a plumber. A familiarity with the water sewage and heating system in a northern environment considered an asset.

WATER TANK CLEANERS: Drain, clean and paint, if required, water & sewage storage tanks; conduct tests to ensure water is potable by using chlorination and iodination methods of disinfecting water conduct residual chlorine test and free caldrine test as required; and, prepare records and reports on the condition of the domestic water system and submit these as required. Requires: secondary school education or equivalent and 3 years' experience in water treatment including disinfecting of water storage systems; and, certified in confined space entry and rescue.

HVAC: Perform corrective maintenance on all types of refrigeration equipment and air handling and associated pneumatic or electrical control systems. HVAC Technicians require a HRAI certificate (Heating, Refrigerating, and Air-Conditioning Institute) for an environmental awareness course, and valid Refrigeration Mechanic license, a valid O.D.S. license, and a minimum of 5 years' experience as a Refrigeration Mechanic.

GENERAL LABOURERS: Janitorial duties, housekeeping, garbage disposal, vehicle operations, and hauling of sewage/waste and water. Requires: prior related work experience and valid drivers' license for most applications.

COMPENSATION

Wages for the positions are set according to the position, the work requirement, as well as the experience and education required. If you are interested in any of these positions, please mail or fax your resume to:

Human Resources Recruitment

Nasittuq Corporation

100 – 170 Laurier Ave. West

Ottawa, ON K1P 5V5

Fax: (613) 787-3888 or E-Mail: recruit@nasittuq.ca

OR

Send your resume to the nearest local Nasittuq Office:
Inuvik, Cambridge Bay, Hall Beach, Iqaluit, or Goose Bay

Our Company is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from all qualified groups. Land Claim Beneficiary applicants from all regions (Inuvialuit/Nunavut/Nunatsiavut/Nunavik) are encouraged to apply and self-identify.